

Authors

1. “Challenges for Media and Information Literacy (MIL) policies in Latin America and the Caribbean”

Rosa M. González
UNESCO
Latinoamérica y el Caribe
r.gonzalez@unesco.org

2. “Media and Information Literacy in Latin American and the Caribbean. Challenges and opportunities of an equal region”

Silvia Bacher
UNESCO MIL ALLIANCE
Latinoamérica y el Caribe
bachersilvia@gmail.com

3. “Media and Information Literacy and Harm Reduction”

Fernando Oliveira Paulino
President of ALAIC
University of Brasilia
Brazil
paulino@unb.br

Mariana Ferreira Lopes
University of Brasilia
Brazil
Lopes.mariana@unb.br

Luiggi Oliveira Fontenele
University of Brasilia
Brazil
luiggifontenele@gmail.com

4. “Brazilian Media Education Strategy - A National Policy Born from Listening”

Mariana de Almeida Filizola
Coordinadora SECOM
Brasil
educacaomidiatica@presidencia.gov.br

Cristiane Parente
UNESCO
Brasil
cristiane.parente@hotmail.com

5. “The Pillars of Media and Information Literacy in Times of Artificial Intelligence”

Janneth Trejo-Quintana
Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México
México
jtrejoquintana@politicass.unam.mx

Alexandre Sayad
UNESCO
Brasil
alevoci@gmail.com

6. “MIL and Democracy in Latin America. Lessons from independent journalism: An overview of Mexico and Brazil”

Carolina Montiel Navarro
Periodista y comunicóloga
carolina.montiel.n@gmail.com

Laura Martínez Águila
Asociación Mexicana de Defensorías de Audiencias
México
laumartag@gmail.com

7. “Media and Information Literacy (MIL) & Educommunication: Sharing tasks!”

Ismar de Oliveira Soares
University of São Paulo (USP)
Brazil
ismarolive@yahoo.com

Felipe Saldanha
University of São Paulo (USP)
Brazil
gsaldanha@gmail.com

8. “A Continent to be Known - A comparative perspective between two Civil Society Organizations dedicated to Media and Information Literacy (MIL) in Latin America”

Manuel-Antonio Monteagudo
A Mí No Me La Hacen
Perú
manuelantonio.monteagudo@gmail.com

Francisco González
Movilizadorio
Colombia
francisco.gonzalez@movilizadorio.org

9. “Gender perspective and inequality in Peru”

María Teresa Quiroz Velasco Universidad de Lima
Perú
teresaquiroz@gmail.com

10. “Media and Information Literacy and Alternative Media”

Hugo Maguey
Veraz.mx
México
hmaguey@gmail.com

11. “Contemporary challenges of MIL: Towards an education for emancipation”

José Manuel Corona-Rodríguez
ITESO Guadalajara
México
joma_corona@hotmail.com

Guillermo Orozco Gómez
Universidad de Guadalajara
México
gorozco@cencar.udg.mx

12. “The Urgency of Media Literacy for Exercising Citizenship and Its Contribution to Guaranteeing Information Integrity - EducaMídia Case Study”

Patricia Blanco
Instituto Palavra Aberta
Brasil
patriciablanco@palavraaberta.org.br

Bruno Ferreira
Instituto Palavra Aberta
Brasil
brunoferreira@palavraaberta.org.br

13. “Media and Information Literacy Research in Latin America”

Eva Da Porta
Universidad Nacional de Córdoba
Argentina
evadaporta@gmail.com

Paula Morabes
Universidad Nacional de la Plata
Argentina
pmorabes@gmail.com

14. “A Review: Situation Report on Media literacy, disinformation and misinformation in the English and Dutch Speaking Caribbean and the Action Plan for Combatting Disinformation”

Kiran Maharaj
Media Institute of the Caribbean
Trinidad & Tobago
kiran@clcommunications.com

Corinne Barnes
The University of the West Indies
Jamaica
corinneibarnes@gmail.com

15. “Rewiring Trust: Digital Influencers, MIL, and the New Media Landscape”

Tomás Balmaceda
Universidad de Buenos Aires
Argentina
tomasbalmaceda@gmail.com